A study in I and II Corinthians
AMEN Bible Study 2013-2014

The Generous Giver
II Corinthians 8:1-24
April 17, 2014

The Background

- * Paul had negotiated with the Council of Jerusalem. cf. Gal. 2:9, 10; Acts 15:1, 5
- * The Corinthians has begun the collection one year prior. cf. I Corinthians 16:1-4
- * The Corinthians had slacked off. cf. II Corinthians 8:10, 11
- * Paul, therefore, teaches on the necessity of generosity. cf. II Corinthians 8-9

8:1-15 I. Our generosity must be vigorously cultivated.

- :1-6 A. We imitate the best Christian givers.
- :1 1. Christian giving is a grace from God.
"We want you to know, brothers, about the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia, ..." cf. Romans 12:8
- :2 2. Christian giving is an overflow of joy.
"...for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part."
- :3 3. Christian giving is sacrificial.
"For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own accord, ..." cf. II Samuel 24:24; Mark 12:43, 44; Romans 12: 1, 2
- :4 4. Christian giving is a privilege.
"...begging us earnestly for the favor of taking part in the relief of the saints- ..."
- :5, 6 5. Christian giving is an offering to the Lord.
"...and this, not as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then by the will of God to us. Accordingly, we urged Titus that as he had started, so he should complete among you this act of grace." cf. Philippians 4:18
- :7 B. We aspire to become excellent givers.
"But as you excel in everything – in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in our love for you – see that you excel in this act of grace also."
1. We plan our giving. cf. I Chronicles 16:29; I Corinthians 16:1, 2
2. We grow in our generosity – quantitatively and qualitatively.
3. We enjoy our giving. cf. Exodus 34:4, 21, 22, 26, 29; 36:2-7
4. We inspire others to give.
- :8 C. We demonstrate our love by our giving.
"I say this not as a command, but to prove by the earnestness of others that your love also is genuine." cf. James 2:14-17
- :9 D. We imitate and demonstrate Jesus.
"For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich."cf. Philippians 2:6-11
- :10, 11 E. We follow our intentions with action.
"And in this matter I give my judgment: this benefits you, who a year ago started not only to do this work but also to desire to do it. So now finish doing it as well, so that your readiness in desiring it may be matched by your completing it out of what you have." cf. I John 3:16-18

:12-15

F. We give proportionately.

“For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he does not have. For I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened, but that as a matter of fairness your abundance at the present time should supply their need, so that their abundance may supply your need, that there may be fairness. As it is written, ‘Whoever gathered much had nothing left over, and whoever gathered little had no lack.’” cf. Deut. 14:22-29; 16:17; Numbers 18:28

:16-24 II. Our generosity must be carefully managed.

:16, 17

A. We must be inspired by godly leaders.

“But thanks be to God, who put into the heart of Titus the same earnest care I have for you. For he not only accepted our appeal, but being himself very earnest he is going to you of his own accord.”

:18, 19

B. We must be properly taught.

“With him we are sending the brother who is famous among all the churches for his preaching of the gospel. And not only that, but he has been appointed by the churches to travel with us as we carry out this act of grace that is being ministered by us, for the glory of the Lord himself and to show our good will.”

:20-23

C. Our gifts must be fully accounted for.

“We take this course so that no one should blame us about this generous gift that is being administered by us, for we aim at what is honorable not only in the Lord’s sight but also in the sight of man. And with them we are sending our brother whom we have often tested and found earnest in many matters, but who is now more earnest than ever because of his great confidence in you. As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for your benefit. And as for our brothers, they are messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ.”

:24

D. Our generosity must inspire others.

“So give proof before the churches of your love and of our boasting about you to these men.” cf. Romans 15:26, 27
