ORDER FOR THE PUBLIC WORSHIP of GOD

Second
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Welcome to our celebration of our Lord’s Resurrection! We are glad that you have joined us for worship.

Easter Sunday means everything to a follower of Jesus since the bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead is the crowning proof of Christianity. If the resurrection did not take place, then Christianity is a false religion. The Apostle Paul said himself, “If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and our faith is in vain” (I Corinthians 15:14).

However, the Good News we celebrate today and every Sunday is that Christ has been raised from the dead! After Paul lists all of the early witnesses to Christ’s resurrection, he then gives us the reason for our celebration: “For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive” (I Corinthians 15:21-22).

Friends, as those made alive in Christ, let us worship Him together — the One who swallowed up death and rose in victory!

The Divine Pardon of a Risen Savior

How does Christ's resurrection benefit us?

First, by His resurrection He has overcome death, so that He could make us share in the righteousness which He had obtained for us by His death.
Second, by His power we too are raised up to a new life.
Third, Christ's resurrection is to us a sure pledge of our glorious resurrection.

Corporate Prayer of Confession: D. Todd Erickson

Almighty God,
in raising Jesus from the grave,
You shattered the power of sin and death.
We confess that we remain captive to doubt and fear, bound by the ways that lead to death.
We forget Your love, wander from Your ways, waste Your gifts, overlook our neighbors, and are deaf to the cries of the oppressed.
When the risks of discipleship are high, we are nowhere to be found.
Father, have mercy on us.
Purge us from selfishness, pride, and the fear of man.
Help us to trust Your power to transform us and make us new so that we may know the joy of abundant life given in Jesus Christ, our risen Lord.

Assurance of Divine Pardon: Romans 4:25

He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.

Worship of God with the Gifts of God: Michael G. Stokke

Offertory Anthem: "The Head That Once Was Crowned with Thorns" arr. John Ferguson

The head that once was crowned with thorns is crowned with glory now;
A royal diadem adorns the mighty Victor's brow.
The highest place that heav'n affords belongs to Him by right;
The King of kings, and Lord of lords, and heav'n's eternal light.
The joy of all above, of all below, to whom He manifests His love.
The cross with all its shame is giv'n;
Their name an everlasting name; their joy the joy of heav'n.
They suffer with their Lord below; they reign with Him above:
Their profit and their joy, their joy to know the mystery of His love.

Congregation joins:
The cross He bore is life and health, though shame and death to him,
His people's hope, His people's wealth their everlasting theme.

†PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION AND THE LORD’S PRAYER ...... Timothy L. Russell

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON ................................................................. Acts 8:26-40 (page 917 in the pew Bible)

All flesh is grass, and all its beauty is like the flower of the field; The grass withers, the flower fades, but the Word of our God will stand forever. Amen. (Isaiah 40:6b, 8)

†HYMN OF THE CROSS: “In Christ Alone” ............... Keith Getty, Stuart Townend

1. In Christ a-lone, my hope is found; He is my light, my strength, my song; this cor-ner-stone, this sol-id ground, firm through the fiercest drought and storm; what heights of love, what depths of peace, when fears are stilled, when striv-ings cease; my Com-fort-died, the wrath of God was sat-is-fied, for ev’ry sin’s curse has lost its grip on me; for I am man can ev-er pluck me from His hand; ’til He re-er, my All in all, here in the love of Christ I stand. His and He is mine, bought with the pre-cious blood of Christ. turns or calls me home, here in the pow’r of Christ I’ll stand.
Today, the paraments have been changed from the red of Holy Week to the white of Eastertide. On the pulpit fall is embroidered a Latin cross in gold thread. Upon the cross bloom three white lilies with green leaves, signifying both purity and the Trinity. The Bible markers bear the Greek letters Chi and Rho, the first two letters of the Greek word for Christ. The Easter banner is also white and features the same gold cross with lilies; it bears the words “Alleluia” and “Christ is risen.” The procession is led by the processional cross. The custom of processional crosses can be traced back to the sixth century A.D. and reminds us of the sacrifice of our Savior, His redeeming love, and the promise of salvation. This cross bears at its junction the letters IHS, the first letters in the Greek name for Jesus.
