HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

The book you now have in your hands has been a labor of love. It began with a realization that no matter how excellent and effective our teaching may be, it cannot compete with the influence of you as parents. God has called you specifically and gifted you uniquely to lead your kids “in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.” Plainly said, you are the greatest spiritual influence in the lives of your kids. To some of you that is a very intimidating and overwhelming thought (I know I feel that way).

Therefore, we as the church want to help encourage and equip you in your role as the primary discipler of your children, and that is why this book exists. Our goal is to set you up in the best way that we can to have spiritual conversations as a family. Our hope is that you will have opportunities on Sundays, perhaps at lunch after Sunday school, as well as a couple of times a week with the Family Devotionals provided, to talk about God and His importance in our everyday lives.

To help accomplish this, we have standardized the Sunday school curriculum so that everyone from JK-12th grade will be learning the same things each week (age appropriately, of course). This allows you as parents to know exactly what all of your kids are learning without having to keep track of multiple e-mails or schedules. Below you will find exactly what is included and how best to use it.

OUTLINE

We provide you with the main points that your students will be learning each week. We do this so you can be best prepared to discuss what they learned and answer any questions that might come up. We also have included a lengthy section of context for each lesson. We believe it is important for all of us to see how each story in the Bible does not stand alone, but instead fits into the larger drama that God has unfolded.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTIONS

The point of these questions is to be conversation starters for you as a family. They are not exhaustive as to the content of what your children have learned that Sunday, but should just get things started for your family. Our hope is that your children will come to expect a conversation about what they learned in Sunday school for two main reasons. First, we want them to see spiritual conversations as a normal and important part of life and second, we hope this expectation will make them more attentive to what they are learning.

FAMILY DEVOS

We have provided two days worth of Family Devotionals for you to do as a family at home. We chose this number so as to not overwhelm families or discourage them for not being able to live up to expectations. Our hope is that the two provided will be a springboard for even more times of family worship during the week. The two we have included will help build a foundation for the Bible character that they will study on Sunday. You will also see a page on “How to Do Family Devotions” which is there only as a resource for you and not a concrete model that must be followed. In the end, the most important thing is for families to spend time together focused on God’s Word and prayer; how that is accomplished is secondary.

HOW TO DO FAMILY DEVOTIONS

When discussing family devotions, the first thing you must know is that there is not just one correct way to do them. Each family is made up of distinct individuals, each with a different personality. Therefore, trying to create a “one-size-fits-all” approach to family devotions is foolish. Below are some helpful hints and guidelines as you lead your devotions. Some of them will be very helpful, while some you will realize do not work for your family. In the end, the point is for you as a family to take time together, reading God’s Word and praying together. However you accomplish this is truly a secondary concern.

PLACE MATTERS

- It will be important to find a consistent place where you always do family devotions. Changing the location can drastically change the dynamics.
- Everyone should be at the same eye level. You don’t want some on the floor and some in chairs or on the couch. This will encourage participation by all members because they will feel as if they are a part of the group.
- Minimize the distractions. Honestly, doing family devotions is hard enough! Only you know what might distract your kids so be sure you eliminate as many interruptions as possible.

PRAYER MATTERS

- It is important for your children to see the importance of prayer. Therefore, be sure that you pray to begin and end your time together. Often it works best to choose one family member to open the time in prayer (which also helps settle busy hearts). At the end is an opportunity to let everyone pray.
- Give your children a role in prayer. One of the things that my family does that has been successful is that we have four prayer categories: 1- Zachary’s class, 2- Bryson’s Class, 3- Our extended family and friends, and 4- Missions. Each time we give someone in the house one of these prayer categories. To minimize the “I want...” of our children, we rotate who assigns who to prayer. That way, everyone gets a chance to decide who prays for what. It has saved a lot of disagreements. For our missions category, we alternate between a Mission Memphis partner and a World Missions partner and it has been such a blessing to watch and hear our kids pick up on and pray for those ministries. We also switch it up some nights and just have a time of confession or adoration or thanksgiving so they don’t think of God as just someone from whom you ask things.

THE WORD MATTERS

- God’s Word is the only thing He promises will bear fruit. It is so important to not only expose them to God’s Word but also to teach them how to think about it. One of the best ways to start doing this is to continually remind them that these stories are REAL - Isaiah 55:11.
- Get them to interact with the Bible for themselves. It is a huge temptation to just provide the answers for them (since we know everything) but they will get so much more out of it if they think about it for themselves. The hardest part for me in this is that I lose the control. I have to constantly remind myself that I want them to get something out of God’s Word and not get frustrated when they don’t get out what I want them to.

HOW TO DO FAMILY DEVOTIONS

- Encourage every little step. It will be very important to encourage every interaction they have with God's Word. They will be more willing to share when they know it is a safe place for them to come with their thoughts. At times, that will mean you are going to go down some rabbit trails, but it will be worth the journey. As a part of that, you need to make sure that they get the truth; this means gently correcting when their theology gets out of whack.

TIME MATTERS

- One of the most important things you are teaching your children is that being together is very important. Just the simple act of carving out time every week that does not involve the TV or a meal out will bear fruit. The intentional act of studying the Word and prayer together will bear fruit even if it is down the line.
- Have fun! I know it sounds silly but if your kids have fun doing family devotions, they will want to keep doing them. For us, that is a short game or a role playing moment at the beginning but for you, it can be whatever. Sometimes I think we are afraid that we will be irreverent when we attempt to have fun, but we must remember that God created fun and laughter, so participating in those activities pleases Him.

D6 DRIVING VALUES

At Second, we believe in three guiding principles, known as the D6 Driving Values. We hope that as you and your family go through these devotions together, you will be further encouraged in your relationship with the Lord, your church community, and in your Kingdom mission.

THE LORD IS MY PRIMARY DEVOTION

- Confronted by the holiness of Christ, I seek Him in daily worship, prayer, and repentance. Isaiah 6:1-8
- Compelled by the love of Christ, I strive to be obedient to Him in my thoughts, words, and deeds. II Corinthians 5:14
- Created new in Christ, my identity is no longer in the things of this world. II Corinthians 5:17
- Confident of the eternity secured for me in Christ, I have peace in the midst of the troubles of this life. Phillipians 4:6-7

THE CHURCH IS MY PRIMARY COMMUNITY

- Knowing that the Gospel liberates me from idols, I cannot imagine not joyfully worshipping God every week with my brothers and sisters in Christ. Thessalonians 1:9b
- Knowing that the Church is called to be a holy nation, set apart from the things of the world, I will embrace this calling by seeking to be Christ-like in all aspects of my life. I Peter 2:9-12
- Knowing that I am a steward of my resources and not an owner, I cheerfully release my resources to build His Kingdom and not my own. Matthew 25:14-30
- Knowing that the Body of Christ is essential to my sanctification, I actively seek relationship and accountability within the church in order to grow in Christ. Ephesians 4:11-16
- Knowing that God has given me spiritual gifts to use in the church, I willingly serve. I Corinthians 12:4-7
- Knowing that Jesus is present where two or more are gathered in His name, I happily pray with and for my brothers and sisters in Christ. Matthew 18:20

BUILDING CHRIST'S KINGDOM IS MY PRIMARY MISSION

- Belonging to Christ's Kingdom causes us to live as a distinct people who are called to be about applying Christ's work of redemption as far as the curse is found as we eagerly await His imminent return and the renewal of all things. Romans 8:19-21
- Building Christ's Kingdom in all of life is an act of worship, and the reason I am alive is to multiply worshippers and redeem culture. II Corinthians 5:16-21
- Building Christ's Kingdom begins in multiplying worshippers of Christ in my own household. Joshua 24:15
- Building Christ's Kingdom is the lens through which I filter every decision as I further the work of redemption. Romans 12:1-2
- Building Christ's Kingdom prioritizes Christ's work of redemption to the extent of intentionally sacrificing our time, money, and talents in furthering the application of the redemption of Christ. I Corinthians 10:31-33

OVERVIEW OF ACTS

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth. – Acts 1:8

For most of His life and ministry Jesus talked about the Kingdom of God. He gave them pictures and parables to help them to understand it and continually mentioned how He was bringing this Kingdom in. He not only taught it but represented it with His miracles and His heart for the poor and marginalized. The disciples were excited to be a part of something so great and at times got overly focused on the Kingdom and their place in it, even arguing about who would receive the places of honor. Just when it seemed that Jesus' popularity and thus their ministry was reaching more and more people, something strange happened: Jesus was arrested and killed.

The disciples' immediate responses were disappointment and dismay. They wondered to themselves how they got it all so wrong. Didn't Jesus say He was the Messiah? Didn't He read the scroll from Isaiah and tell them that it was fulfilled in their hearing that day? Didn't He call Himself the Son of Man and the Lamb of God? It was in the midst of this confusion that the Lord gave them hope as Mary came and told them that the Lord had risen. Thus began a whirlwind of action and emotion as Jesus appeared to them to show that He had been raised and reminded them of what He came to do: save sinners and preach the Kingdom.

The disciples were filled with awe and joy but didn't really get their role in all of this. They rejoiced that Jesus was back, as surely a resurrected Jesus would convince anyone who doubted previously. They seem to have forgotten that Jesus had sent them out into ministry and had spoken about the fact that they would go to authorities and be persecuted for His Name. They even went back to their old lives and went fishing, seeming to think that the whole thing was over. Again, Jesus shook them up. He told them that He was leaving and that it was now their job to continue His work. As Jesus went and taught and healed and loved, so now they were to go as His witnesses. Jesus also made them a couple of promises. First, they would not have to do this in their own power. They would receive the promised Helper, the Holy Spirit who would give them all they needed to fulfill their mission. Second, He would return and when He did He would bring the full Kingdom of God with Him.

As Jesus ascended to heaven, the disciples watched and waited, even having to be moved by the angels to go and await the Spirit. Once the Spirit came upon them everything changed. The same disciples who once cowered behind locked doors for fear of the Jews after Jesus' death would now find themselves openly proclaiming Jesus at the temple before the religious leaders. God made them into something that was so much greater than they could be as individuals; a church. God would use the disciples to bring thousands to follow Jesus from Jerusalem to around the world, giving them a place of hope and refuge while also giving them a glorious mission: to make disciples of all nations through the power of the Holy Spirit.

As we study Acts, we will get to see God's powerful hand at work through normal people like us and how they transformed the world to the point that we still see their effects today. We get to see the origin story of our church and every church by watching how God used a group of "unschooled, ordinary men" to change the world.
