Discussion Questions

1. What assurance does the fact that God caused (and still causes) all things to grow give us?
2. What role has God given us in his creation? Why has he given us this role?
3. What is God communicating to us by expressly laying out in his word that we are created and sustained by him alone?
4. Did any of the alternate 'gods' named resonate with you? How so?
5. How is this account of creation good news that dissuades us from idols?
