Trusting in the Character of God

Genesis 6:9-22
October 16-17, 2019

Scripture Introduction

- I. The Man of God (vs. 9-10)
- II. The Justice of God (vs. 11-13)
- III. The Sovereignty of God (vs. 14-17)
- IV. The Mercy of God (vs. 18-21)
- V. The Response of God's Man (vs. 22)

Discussion Questions

1. Why is it accurate for Noah to be described as “a righteous man, blameless in his generation?” How does Hebrews 11 clarify this for us?
2. How are the justice of God and the judgment of God connected? Why is it important for us to understand this connection?
3. How is the sovereignty of God displayed in Genesis 6?
4. How is the mercy of God displayed in Genesis 6?
5. What would have been some of the obstacles and temptations Noah faced in doing “all that God commanded him?”

Going Deeper

1. In what area(s) of your life are you allowing the corruption of sin to destroy what God intended for you?
2. How has God shown His justice and sovereignty and mercy in your life? What are practical and specific ways you want to respond to that this week?
