ORDER FOR THE
PUBLIC WORSHIP OF GOD

March 24, 2019
Season of Lent
Edward Mote is not usually a name that comes to mind when thinking about the great Christian authors in hymnody. However, he is the author of our opening hymn, “My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less,” and the testimony of his life is one that should inspire all Christians.

Mote was not brought up in a Christian home nor did he have any knowledge of God’s Word. In fact, his parents owned a pub in London and often neglected young Edward, who spent most of his Sundays playing in the streets. Of his theological upbringing he said, “So ignorant was I that I did not know there was a God.”

Eventually Mote heard the Gospel, was converted, and was baptized at the age of 18. At the age of 55, after a long and successful career as a cabinetmaker, Edward became a pastor of a Baptist church in Sussex. It was with this background and his experience of God’s saving grace in Christ that Mote wrote the hymn we love today, “My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less.”

From a declaration of God’s saving grace in Christ in the first stanza to the application of that grace in times of trouble in the second and third stanzas, the writer brings his hymn full circle in the final stanza with the ultimate realization of God’s grace on the Day to come.

This hymn, penned by the son of neglectful pubkeepers in London, has become one of the most beloved Gospel hymns in the Church today. It celebrates the basic message of the Gospel — that faith in Christ alone is the only requirement for salvation.

Let us worship God together for the beautiful Gospel that declares we are saved by faith alone in Christ alone!

REST IN PARDONING GRACE

CORPORATE PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Awesome and compassionate God,
You have loved us with unfailing, self-giving mercy,
but we have not loved You.
You constantly call us, but we do not listen.
You ask us to love, but we walk away from neighbors in need,
wrapped in our own concerns.
We condone evil, prejudice, warfare, and greed.
God of grace, as You come to us in mercy,
we repent in spirit and in truth.
Grant us, we pray, the grace to die daily to sin
and to rise daily to new life in Christ,
who lives and reigns with You,
and in whose strong name we pray.

WORSHIP OF GOD WITH THE GIFTS OF GOD

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: “To Love Our God” ................................. Mark Hayes

Where does the wind come from? Where does it go?
Blowing north then south, how does it know?
The rain flows gently to the sea, yet the sea is never full.
How can these things be? How can they be?
Humanity works hard to make a name, toiling in the sun, yet nothing gained.
We all return to dust from whence we came. All is empty, all is vain.
To love our God, the reason we live; to love our God, the highest call.
Nothing satisfies our soul, gives life meaning, makes us whole.
For this purpose we were made — to love our God!
