Conclusion

Discussion Questions

1. Why is confessing the worst about ourselves to receive forgiveness so counterintuitive?
2. According to Romans 5:18-21, how does acknowledging our sin lead us to a greater knowledge of God's grace?
3. What does unconfessed sin do to a person?
4. What promise does God give us before we even confess and how does this encourage us to confess?

Going Deeper

1. Are there sins you have not fully confessed to God?
2. What keeps you from fully confessing sins to God?
