Discussion Questions

1. Why are righteousness and justice so foundational to any culture or leader?
2. How does a belief in an eternal kingdom help us live in peace and confidence in the now?
3. What are some of the ways you currently see God's Kingdom expanding around the world?
4. Why are the physical bodies (not just the spiritual souls) of all humans so important to God and His Kingdom?
5. In what ways does the psalm use the words "blessing" and "blessed?" How does that help us understand God's blessing?

Going Deeper

1. How are you displaying righteousness and justice in your home and workplace?
2. Understanding that God's eternal Kingdom supersedes all other earthly Kingdoms and nations, and is not tied to any particular earthly kingdom or nation how should that inform and define our relationship to our country and our politics?
3. How are you (in home, workplace, and relationships) reflecting God's concern for the weak, poor, oppressed, threatened, and needy in Memphis?
